(Every reasonable endeavour will be made to offer alternative accommodation should this occur).
6. No smoking is allowed inside the Premises.
7. Under no circumstances are animals allowed on or inside the premises.
8. Parties or group gatherings outside of the nominated tenants are not allowed. VUE Byron Bay is a residential complex, located in a residential area, and the neighbours are permanent residents. Therefore, parties or gatherings of people outside the nominated tenants are not permitted out of respect for our neighbours.
9. The nominated tenants are the only people allowed to occupy the premises. If other parties are found to be residing in Beach House 7 that are not the nominated tenants in this agreement they will be evicted immediately. If alternative parties are found to be in occupancy other than the nominated tenants in this agreement they will be evicted and the rent paid by the tenants in this agreement that are not in occupancy will be forfeited.
10. A curfew on music and loud noise is imposed after 10.00pm. You must respect the peace and quiet of the neighbours that live in the Mahogany Drive precinct. A warning following a noise complaint will be given. Any further complaints may result in a notification to vacate the premises immediately with no refund given. The Police in Byron Bay show no tolerance to loud music or noise and act quickly from complaints from neighbours. Please be conscious of this.

If the home theatre systems are in use after 10PM all Sub Woofers are to be turned off at their power outlet.
11. The Holiday Letting Organisation of Byron enforce the curfew on loud music and if called to request that the tenant in this agreement are asked to turn down the music the tenant authorises the $100.00 charge out fee to be debited to the credit card nominated in this agreement. After one warning for noise by the Holiday Letting Organisation, tenants will be evicted with no refunds.
12. If the tenant has a problem with loud music from a neighbouring property you can call the Holiday Letting Security Hotline on 02 6626 6888.
13. In the case of a telephone, web or postal booking, the Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that any description of the premises is made in good faith and accepts no responsibility for any misdescription or misrepresentation that may be incorrectly interpreted by the tenant after the booking has been made.
15. Breakages, damage, lost keys, lost auto door controls, extra cleaning costs or excess rubbish removal costs are to be replaced and paid for by the tenant out of monies deducted from the credit card bond authorised herein. The tenant authorises the Landlord or Agent to process and deduct the applicable charges through their credit card merchant facilities. Upon vacating the Premises, please inform the Landlord, or leave a note for the cleaner of any breakages or damage done, so the effected items may be replaced immediately.
16. No responsibility is taken by the Agent or the Owner for Tenants personal property that may be lost or stolen. We recommend that the premises should always be locked when going out.
17. The Premises are available on the condition that it will accommodate a maximum of eight (8) people. Children under the age of four (4) are excluded from this condition. The person whose name is noted in the Tenancy Agreement is solely responsible for the period of tenancy and number of persons stated and any damage done to the premises or extra costs charged to the landlord.
18. Refunds following cancellation are only available if the Landlord is notified one (1) month prior to the commencement of the booking and a booking fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) shall be deducted. Should the booking be cancelled within one (1) month of the booking date, the Landlord reserves the right to retain all deposit moneys held.

20. The Tenant and their invitees shall immediately vacate the premises upon notice by the Landlord or their Agent of their breach of Clauses 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 17 and the Tenant acknowledges that these are essential clauses in this Agreement.
